

Leaving your stamp on the world

Mission Agencies, like many other Christian ministries wouldn't exist without the generous donations of church members. Fundraising is an ongoing necessity and agencies are keen to find new and innovative ways to help finance the work of missionaries around the globe.

One productive fundraising activity employed by Global Interaction is the collection and resale of second hand stamps. Last year, GiA raised $65,000.

The MAC team has undertaken to help this fundraising activity by collecting stamps for GiA.

Can you help? All stamps, YES, even the common ones, pre-printed envelopes (left whole) and other stamps are needed! When removing stamps from old envelopes could you please leave a 5mm border around the stamp. Min stamps are also acceptable, but they need to be kept separate. Used phone cards and pre-1950 postcards are also very saleable.
